Hey Augie,

Are they looking for photos of ships and harbor? Not quite sure what he is looking for.

I'll get some photos together and run them by you.

Thank you,

Stephen

Hi Stephan,

Please read the e-mail chain below and I spoke with Theresa. She says that as long as they give us credit it's OK to use some of our photos. Can you provide a collection for Andy from the PBID? I could help delivering them if e-mail doesn't work....

Thanks,

Augie

Ok, I'll get you a collection of about 10 to 20 photos (I hope that's enough) and please give the Port credit when you use them (Photo courtesy of the Port of Los Angeles)..... thanks!

it's for Fleetweek marketing materials and a back drop people can take photos with. Using pictures of the lowa on everything stagnates how the event looks. Lorena and I thought it would be good to have waterfront images that can portray San Pedro in one vision.

If you can ask him to provide a collection we can use, then we pick out what works out best would be a start.

Hi Andy,

You can ask and I'm not sure if he will give them to you - they're probably the property of the Port of Los Angeles. What do you want them for - maybe I can help?

Hi Augie,

I know the port hires a photographer for the Instagram account, I was wondering if I could ask him if he has collections of photos of the harbor and ships? Also a nice wide image of the San Pedro Waterfront.

Is it possible I can reach him?
